SPEC13 GHOSTS OF THE PAST: HIVE OF CORRUPTION (HI)

SPEC14 Favor of House Audark

You recovered Ervaen Audark in good health. His parents are grateful, and Ilsevele Miritar, coronal of Myth Drannor, has praised your heroics. You earn respect in the eladrin kingdoms of Myth Drannor.

If this is third special recognition by an eladrin kingdom (similarly worded story awards) the coronal instead offers you the title Sha'Quessir, elf-friend. If accepted, you become a full citizen of the eladrin kingdoms of the Forgotten Realms (Evereska or Myth Drannor) with all the attached privileges and duties. An eladrin or elf instead is offered the title of Knight of Myth Drannor.

SPEC15 Taint of Moander

You have failed to keep the taint of Moander from Ervaen Audark. The Darkbringer may be a dead god, his corrupted influence is still felt, and your failure has earned you the undesired attention of dark forces.

You feel strangely drawn to places that were once sacred to Moander, and occasionally have sdisturbing dreams of a dark place, full of twisted dead trees and dark shadows that move on their own.

Whatever may come from this is unknown... but it can't be good.

SPEC16 Memorial Tablet - Fragment #1

You found a fragment of a sandstone tablet chiseled with ancient runes. The runes, which look like ancient, twisted elven runes, are impossible to decipher - some kind of magic thwarts any attempt to read the inscriptions. Perhaps, if you find more fragments of this tablet, the tale behind it will one day be made known.
