

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS LIVING FORGOTTEN REALMS

(character name)

HAS RECEIVED STORY AWARDS FROM

CORE5~8 THE DANTALIEN MANEUVER

CORE105 Defenders of Dantalien

You successfully defended Aglarond from a Thayan invasion plot. You are considered a hero in Aglarond and an enemy of Thay.

Your fame quickly spreads across the Sea of Fallen Stars. This can result in a favorable reaction from allies of Aglarond (bonus to appropriate skill checks at the DM's discretion). Thayan NPCs and other enemies of Aglarond may also have heard of you (affecting appropriate skill checks for good or ill, as decided by the DM).

At the very least you occasionally get a free meal or drink because of your fame.

AGLA26 The Simbarchs' Ire

With the fall of Citadel Dantalien the Simbarchs went looking for a scapegoat, and you made an excellent choice. Your name is now a curse word in Aglarond. When you buy supplies in Aglarond, they cost more than usual (10% increase in cost for mundane items). You are distrusted by the populace (-2 penalty on all social skill checks in Aglarond). The DM may devise other effects of this Story Award as appropriate.

CORE106 Thayan Respect

Your small band managed to slow down and harm a much larger force. This has earned you the grudging respect of the Thayan leaders. This could be beneficial in your dealings with them in the future (possible bonuses to social skills when dealing with Thayan NPCs). It could also mean assassins in the night; at the very least you are considered a dangerous opponent in any combat (Thayan NPCs and their allies target you first).
